GOVERNANCE PROCEDURES

1 Introduction

1.1 Governance Procedures

These Governance Procedures were adopted by the Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust (the “Trust”) at a meeting of the Board of Trustees on 9th September 2004.

1.2 The Rules

The Rules of the Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust (the “Rules”) are the primary governing document of the Trust.

1.3 Governance Procedures

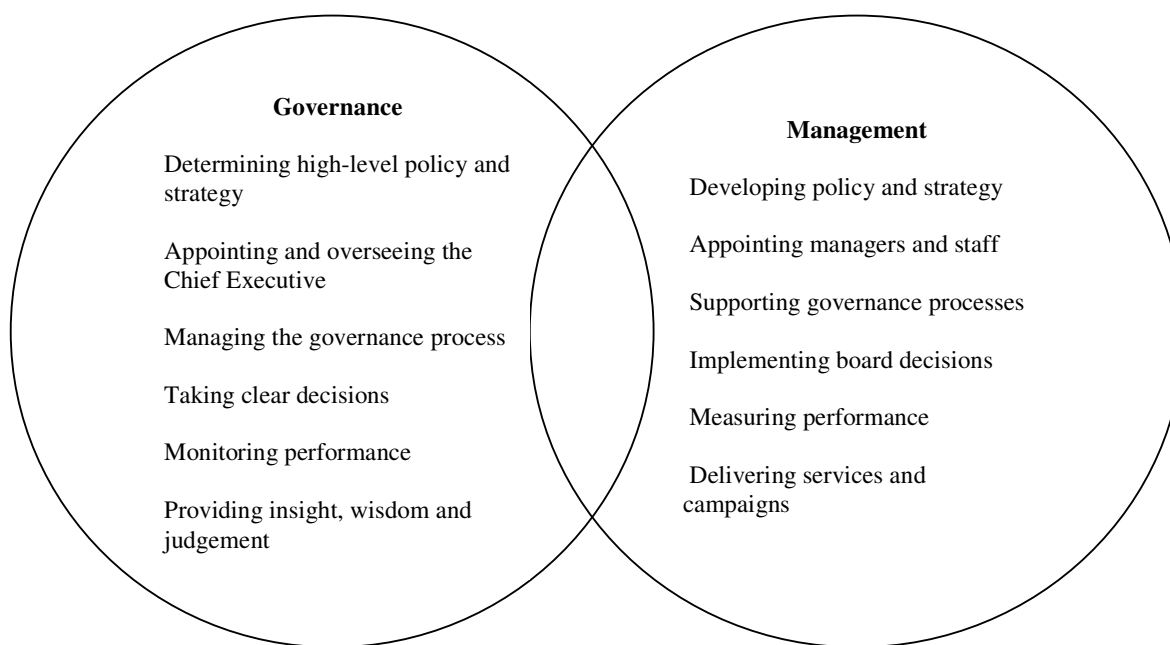

These Governance Procedures may be reviewed and revised by the Board of Trustees from time to time.

2 Principles of Sound Governance

The Trust recognises the principles of sound governance set out in Appendix I and will endeavour to comply with these principles in all matters.

3 The Board of Trustees

- Pursuant to Rule 11, the Board of Trustees is responsible for the governance and overall control of the Trust and for ensuring that it is properly managed and pursues its Objects including the mission of saving species from extinction.
- The diagram below is an aide memoire setting out the different but overlapping roles of the Board of Trustees and the management:

4 Trustees

4.1 Election of Trustees

4.1.1 The requirements governing the election of Trustees are set out in Rule 12.

4.1.2 With the exception of any Members who are employed by the Trust as members of staff, all Members and persons who have applied to become a Member and whose application is pending approval by the Board of Trustees (provided that such person has not previously submitted an application for membership which was rejected by the Board of Trustees) will be eligible to be elected as Trustees.

4.1.3 The Governance Committee will be responsible for the process of seeking and evaluating prospective Trustees for election.

4.1.4 The Board of Trustees will publicise vacancies for the post of Trustee to Members and others. To do so they will use publications of the Trust and any other avenues they see fit. This call will normally be made 180 clear days (i.e. 6 months) before the Annual General Meeting. The call for Trustees should summarise the skills and attributes, which the Board of Trustees will require over the following three years.

4.1.5 Given that only Members and those whose application for Membership is pending can become Trustees, the Governance Committee will determine on any occasion whether it is appropriate to publicise the vacancies widely to other than the Membership.

4.1.6 Any person eligible to be elected as a Trustee under Rule 12(1) may put himself or herself forward for election as a Trustee by completing a self-nomination form (which will be provided by the Governance Committee on request). This completed form must be received by the Governance Committee at the Trust's Offices no less than 120 clear days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting. The Governance Committee, in its absolute discretion and in accordance with these procedures, may exceptionally consider self-nomination forms received after this date.

- 4.1.7 The Governance Committee will identify from those eligible persons who have completed self-nomination forms the candidates whose skills and attributes best reflect the requirements of the Trust, as recommended candidates, informing the Board thus.
- 4.1.8 Pursuant on Rule 12(6) the Board of Trustees will send standard details of all eligible candidates for the Board to every Member who is entitled to receive notice of the Annual General Meeting. These details must be sent no less than 30 clear days before the Annual General Meeting. Once these details have been circulated, no further persons will be eligible as candidates for election at that AGM.
- 4.1.9 The Board will at the same time send to Members, without change, the conclusions of its Governance Committee as to which of the persons it recommends to Members as offering the mixture of attributes and skills needed by the Board at the time.
- 4.1.10 People nominating themselves may state that if they are not recommended by the Governance Committee, their names will not be included in the list of valid candidates to be sent to members.
- 4.1.11 All voting for Trustees will be by ballot, with provision for a postal ballot sent to every Member not less than 30 clear days before the AGM. Valid ballots must be received four clear days before the AGM. At the Annual General Meeting the results of the ballot will be announced in line with Rule 12(9).
- 4.1.12 If the Board lacks certain skills and attributes, either after an AGM or at any point in the year, then the Board of Trustees may co-opt Trustees as set out in Rule 13.
- 4.1.13 No Trustee will be entitled to act as a Trustee or vote at any meeting of the Trustees until he or she has signed a declaration of willingness to act as a Trustee of the Trust and agreed to abide by the Code of Conduct for Trustees set out in Governance Procedure 12.

4.2 Election of Chairman, Honorary Treasurer and Honorary Secretary

- 4.2.1 The positions of Chairman, Honorary Treasurer and Honorary Secretary will be filled by election by the Board from amongst their number (Rule 16).
- 4.2.2 The Governance Committee will specify the attributes and skills required for each post, and will use its standard processes to seek and evaluate suitable candidates. Replacing these Officers may occur at any time of the year, irrespective of the regular annual cycle of electing Trustees.

Governance Procedures

Amendments adopted by the Board of Trustees 22nd May 2008

4.2.3 For each position, the Governance Committee will usually recommend only one candidate to the Board of Trustees. Such people may be either elected or co-opted Trustees and must have agreed to their name going forward.

Appendix I

Principles of Sound Governance

Extract from The Hallmarks of an Effective Charity (Charity Commission, April 2004) promoted by the Association of Jersey Charities.

An effective charity is run by a clearly identifiable trustee body that has the right balance of skills and experience to run the charity effectively, acts in the best interests of the charity and its beneficiaries, understands its responsibilities and has systems in place to exercise them effectively.

In order to demonstrate this, the charity:

- complies with the law by ensuring that the trustee body is constituted in accordance with the governing document;
- identifies the mix of skills, knowledge and experience necessary for the efficient and effective direction of the charity and ensures that the rotation of trustees provides adequate opportunities for re-assessing that mix;
- recruits and selects trustees on the basis of the mix of skills, knowledge, experience and the diversity that they bring to the trustee body, as well as the time they have to do the job well; undertakes all appropriate checks to ensure that a prospective trustee is both eligible and suitable to act in that capacity;
- has a policy for managing conflicts of interest on the trustee body and ensures that trustees understand that they must act solely in the best interests of the charity;
- has an induction programme for trustees which enables them to rapidly become effective and valuable trustees;
- has a trustee body that takes responsibility for evaluating its own performance and for identifying and addressing the individual training needs of trustees;
- has a trustee body that is the right size for the charity – large enough to include the right balance of skills and experience needed to run the charity effectively, but small enough to facilitate discussion and effective decision making;
- has a clear understanding of the respective roles of the trustee body and staff with written role descriptions for trustees and trustee officers (such as the Chair and Treasurer), and has systems in place that the trustee body use to monitor and oversee the way in which their delegated powers are exercised;
- is able to take decisions, which further the work of the charity while recognising and managing the risks to the charity's beneficiaries, to itself and to other stakeholders.

APPENDIX VI

DECLARATION OF INTERESTS POLICY (Adopted by the Board of Trustees 25th May 2006)

In attracting suitable people onto the Board of Trustees, Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust (“DWCT”) seeks people who have the governance and professional skills required to undertake the role of Trustee. Potential Trustees may well be drawn from organisations that have similar aims and values to those of DWCT or a similar community of interest. This, along with other connections or activities, may bring with it some potential for conflict of interest.

Whilst, as a Jersey charity, it is not regulated by the UK Charity Commission, DWCT aims to uphold the UK Charity Commission's guidelines on the Responsibilities of Charity Trustees which state that:

Trustees are required to act reasonably and prudently in all matters relating to the charity and need always to bear in mind that their prime concern is the interests of the charity. They cannot let their personal views or prejudices affect their conduct as Trustees.

To ensure good governance, DWCT has established a Trustee’s declaration process and a register of interests. To ensure openness and transparency and, in establishing good governance, Trustees are expected to:

1. Sign the Trustee Declaration (attached hereto) before joining the Board of Trustees;
2. Declare and register any interests that may impact on their work with DWCT in the register held by the Honorary Secretary and update this annually;
3. Declare any potential for conflict of interest that may arise due to the topics under discussion at a Board of Trustees meeting or a Committee of the Board of Trustees.

Declaration of Conflicts of Interest

As stated above, Trustees are expected to declare at both Board meetings and Committee meetings any potential conflict of interest that may arise due to the topics under discussion, for example, any financial interest in the outcome of an agenda item, or a competing interest or claim to a common donor, or membership of an organisation under discussion.

Where a conflict of interest is declared at a meeting, the individual shall be entitled to remain but shall not vote on any matter in respect of which the conflict exists unless the Chairman decides that there are particular reasons why the individual should withdraw, in which case the individual shall withdraw.

Register of Interests

As stated in the Trustee Declaration, Trustees are asked to declare any interests that may impact on their work with DWCT in the register of interests held by the Honorary Secretary.

The register of interests will be available to Trustees for inspection and will be maintained in compliance with the Data Protection (Jersey) Law.

Declared interests may include but are not necessarily limited to:

- family or close ties with members of DWCT's staff or Trustees;
- relevant self-employment, directorships, trusteeships or equivalent positions and appointments;
- relevant financial interests.

Trustees will be asked by the Honorary Secretary to update their entries in the register annually – normally before an AGM.

The annual report of Trustees will include a statement indicating that a declaration of interest procedure is in place and indicating if Trustees have any competing interests.

Gifts

Occasionally Trustees may receive a gift, benefit or an offer of hospitality arising from their position at DWCT. All items shall be declared and recorded by the Honorary Secretary and any item considered to be of a value of more than £500.00 is to be handed over to DWCT.

Trustee Declaration

I (name of Trustee) declare that I have read DWCT's Rules, Governance Procedures and Declaration of Interest Policy and that I:

- have provided a full CV to DWCT and am aged over 18 years
- have declared any conviction for an offence involving deception or dishonesty
- am not an un-discharged bankrupt

- will undertake to fulfil my responsibilities and duties as a Trustee in good faith and in accordance with Jersey law

- do not have any financial or other interests that could be reasonably expected to come into conflict with those of DWCT (either in person, or through family, business or employment connections) except those that I have formally notified in the register of interests
- confirm that I am willing to act as a Trustee of DWCT as I am required to do by Clause 12 (11) of the Rules of DWCT.
